

Relive Childhood with These Nostalgic Desserts

Wanting to grow up faster is the hallmark of childhood. But seriously, kids don't know how good they have it. Sure, it's great not having to pay bills, argue about politics, or commute to work via Metro every morning. And who doesn't love a long day of splashing in the pool, a princess tea party, or a rousing game of tag?

8 Central Michel Richard

Have a break with Michel's Chocolate Bar ($11), which is often compared to a KitKat. It's a crispy layer of feuilletine and hazelnut paste, topped with a layer of chocolate mousse, and served in a hazelnut sauce with crispy chocolate pearls.

1001 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, D.C. 20004

(202) 626-0015

July 19, 2016